A DOUBLE LAUNCHING.

The Steamer La Grange and the Gunboat Helena.

The Steamer La Grange and the Gunboat Helena, added to the United States force afloat in the presence of Admiral Dancos, mysterious squadron of revolution, in a great duplicate of the Wilmington, launched with the cruiser Nashville, from the adjoining ways of the Newport News Ship-Building and Dry Dock Co. October 19 last, that occasion being made memorable by the presence of the secretary of the navy and a distinguished official party.

SHE is 12-knot vessel of about 1,400 tons displacement, 350 feet long with the light draft of nine feet, adapting her for service in shallow rivers and, when in commission, will carry a complement of 170 officers and men. A main battery of eight four-inch quick-firing rifles, eight small rapid-fire rifles and two Gatlings, is destined more for attack against unfortified positions than for combat against other naval vessels, for it is intended that vessels of this class shall be kept in Chinese waters and the harbors of countries near the tropics, for which purpose she has been equipped with refrigerating apparatus and other appliances for the health and comfort of the crew.

THE big coastwise passenger vessel of the Plant line, which procees the Helena into the water, is in some respects also a valuable addition to the American navy, as she is constructed in compliance with the government requirements for auxiliary cruisers, and adapted for cruising and commissioning whenever occasion arises. She is a steel vessel 494 feet long with 27-foot beam, and besides a large freight-carrying capacity, has accommodations for 300 first-class and 400 second-class passengers. She is named "Le Grande Duchesse."

HER godmother, who christened her is Miss Agnes Belle Steele, daughter of the mayor of Helena, Mont., who was in attendance with an escort of 14 ladies and gentlemen, having come east solely to attend the function.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY McADOO, Rear Admiral Jewett, Naval Constructor Taylor, Assistant Judge Advocate General Lauchheimer, Lieutenants Nichols, Votaw and Knapp, and several other representatives of the navy department, and were among the distinguished guests of President C. P. Orcutt of the ship-building company.

FOLLOWING the double launching a dinner was served, at which Assistant Secretary McAdoo and other officials spoke.

TWELVE hundred men have already reached Marash and many more are following them to that place. Many of the wounded have died, either in Marash or along the road from Zeitoun. A number of prisoners have been taken to Marash. Their treatment was something awful. All sorts of indignities were heaped upon them, and in a large number of cases they were so shockingly ill-treated that it is impossible to publish details.

TOKYO, Japan, Jan. 31.—On the 30th of January the opposition in the Japanese house of representatives introduced its great measure impeaching the cabinet. The accusations referred to the cabinet's conduct in retroceding the Liao Tung peninsula, and in sending to Korea Viscount Mura, a minister that brought disgrace on the country. It was contended by the opposition that the cabinet should have foreseen the coalition of Russia, Germany and France, and should have prepared a counter coalition, failing which, the three powers should have been defied. After a five hours' debate, the address was rejected by 170 votes to 103.
